

My family has appreciated the great reduction in annoying calls since enactment of Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. We oppose weakening Indiana's Telephone Privacy law by allowing consumer banks or any other group/individual to rely on an existing business relationship exemption from the law.